Historic 9th Street Hill Neighborhood

Lafayette was recognized nationally by three well-known organizations in 2010 for its economic prospects as well as the character of one of its oldest neighborhoods, Historic 9th Street Hill. Considering recent developments in the national economy, these awards demonstrate Lafayette's resilience and solid companies in many sectors of the economy. The American Planning Association, a national professional association for urban planners, recognized the vitality, historic character, and significance of the Historic 9th Street Hill Neighborhood.
