McAllister Recreation Center to host Spring Celebration

LAFAYETTE, IN – April 1, 2024 – McAllister Recreation Center will be hosting its annual Spring Celebration from 11:00am-2:00pm on Saturday, April 6, 2024. The event will take place at McAllister Recreation Center and feature egg hunts, games, crafts, and fun activities for the whole family. Food trucks will be on site during the event as well as the McAllister Market which features local vendors.

“We are always very excited to host this annual event,” said McAllister Recreation Center Manager Chad Aldridge. “In addition to the egg hunts for kids of all ages, attendees will also enjoy crafts and games, local food trucks and vendors for the McAllister Market that will take place during the Spring Celebration. It’s going to be a lot of fun for our community.”

Spring Celebration is free and open to the public. Egg hunts will start at noon and be organized by age groups: children ages 0-3 years at noon, children ages 4-6 years at 12:30pm, and children ages 7 and up at 1:00pm.
