Art in the Park Summer Series

Lafayette, Indiana – Lafayette Parks and Recreation will host Art in the Park starting at 6:00 pm Wednesday, July 29, 2015. The event will feature a variety of music performances from the Danny Weiss Jazz Trio, Madi & Sam, and Popular Ego. Art in the Park will take place on Memorial Island, within Columbian Park. This event series is sponsored by the James K. Risk Family Foundation.

Art in the Park 2015 will be celebrated every Wednesday through August at 6:00 pm. A grand finale will take place on Wednesday, August 5, from 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm. The event will be held on Memorial Island, within historic Columbian Park in Lafayette. Artist booths will have their wares on display, musicians will perform on stage, and food vendors will be on-site during each event. Merchandise will be sold by featured vendors. Wireless internet access will be available to the public, and a protected network is available to vendors accepting credit cards. Art in the Park is a free, family-friendly event, and is open to the public. We thank the James K. Risk Family Foundation for their generous sponsorship that has made the second season of Art in the Park possible.
